The shepherding care of God is a central theme of today's readings. This divine shepherding brings reconciliation and ends false separation.

Jeremiah (First Reading) shows great courage as he castigates the rulers of his day, describing them as corrupt, irresponsible shepherds. But he also foresees that God will raise up other shepherds with integrity, who will be true leaders of their people.

This prophesy is fulfilled in the Gospel, where Jesus sees the people as 'sheep without a shepherd'. His loving concern for them reveals him as the Good Shepherd, who offers food for hearts and souls and bodies. He also tends the tired apostles, inviting them to rest awhile, affirming a balanced life that includes times of reflection and rest as well as activity.
